

1. I Am What God Says I Am

I am what God says I am.
I am what God says I am.
I'm more than a conqueror through Him who loved us.
I am what God says I am

I'm blessed cuz God says I'm blessed.
I'm blessed cuz God says I'm blessed.
I'm more than a conqueror through Him who loved us.
I am what God says I am.

I'm healed cuz God says I'm healed.
I healed cuz God says I'm healed.
I'm more than a conqueror through Him who loved us
I am what God says I am

I'm free cuz God made me free.
I'm free cuz God made me free.
I'm more than a conqueror through Him who loved us.
I am what God says I am.

3. Be With Me

Be with me, Lord, where I go.
Teach me what you'd have me do.
Suggest what I think or say;
Direct me in your perfect way.

Help me when I harbor pride,
Or if in my own strength confide.
Show me my weakness let me see.
I have my power my all from thee.

Whom have I in heaven or earth but You?
And who do I desire more than You?

Assist and teach my heart to stay.
Incline me to obey.
What You hate, let me flee.
And only love what pleases Thee.

2. Faithful Abraham

I want to be like the faithful Abraham,
Who was led by God into a strange new land.
God's promise was his home, he took God's hand.
He didn't need a city built by man.
He didn't need a city built by man.

With eyes that saw God's Word as more true
Than circumstance or what men say and do.
Persuaded that God would always come through.
I want to be an Abraham, too.
I want to be an Abraham, too.

Help me to love Your ways.
Help me to love Your words.
Help me to seek Your wisdom.
Help me to be,
Help me to be,
Help me to be what You've called me to be.

When things press on me and I want to faint.
I look at men like Abraham and have strength.
With contented heart, he didn't stagger and break.
Waiting on God, he was strong in faith
Looking to God, he was able to wait.

4. A Very Present Help

God never gave up on me.
He always cared, so tenderly.
From worry and fear I've been released.
He never, no never gives up on me.

When my legs have run their last,
And my heart is weary,
And my head can't help but hang low,
Your strength will never fail me.

When the road I'm walking on
Is the one that's far from You,
Lonely wand'rer that I am,
Still You draw me back to you.

When this world is wearing me down,
Feeling pressed on every side,
Losing sight of what's to come,
Your words will be my guide.

5. He Saw it All

Headin' slowly through town one afternoon, head low and heart full of cares.
I heard a commotion, a couple streets over, and wondered, "What's happening there?"
A young man was running, from in that direction, and stopped just to catch his breath.
I asked him to please tell me what was the hurry. He smiled up at me and he said,

"I was trying to catch the crippled man - did he run past this way?
He was rushing home to tell everyone, what Jesus did today.
And the mute man was telling, myself and the deaf girl, he's leaving to answer God's call.
It's hard to believe, but if you don't trust me, ask the blind man, he saw it all.
Ask the blind man, he saw it all."

My friend if the troubles and burdens you carry, are heavy and dragging you down.
If you've tried everything that you can think of, but there's still no relief to be found.
That very same Jesus who altered the future, of the blind man, the deaf and the lame,
Was made sin so we could be made like him – and a new me walked out of the grave.

6. What You Did for Me

I was a slave to the great deceiver,
Doomed to obey his command.
But Christ my Lord, came to my rescue,
Shattered the chains and let me go.

I don't want to forget what you did for me, on Calvary.
You stripped the authority of Satan's power over me.
Now I am free. Now I am free.

Still in this world at your command,
But I'm not helpless anymore.
With God's word and His spirit inside me,
There isn't one dart I can't quench.

I'll be with you for eternity.
No longer bound to the enemy.
He who rules the kingdom of darkness
Doesn't have a say in my destiny!

I don't want to forget what you did for me,
I'm not his property.
He's under my feet, for eternity.
Oh, your love, it set me free. Now I am free.

7. Run Away

Helpless, I'm thrown around,
Lost when I should be found,
Always looking down, never above me.
It's just this pride, you see,
It's always stopping me,
Telling me, I don't need anyone but me.

So, I tried to run, run, run away,
Where God's love couldn't reach me.
Tried to hide my face away,
Thinking He wouldn't care to seek me.
(I was wrong, wrong, wrong.
I could not have been more wrong.)

It wasn't surprising
To find pride was lying,
But what did surprise me was how much I'd listened.
Before I even knew
I was doubting You-
Didn't think You'd come through.
(Sometimes I'm such a fool.)

I could never run so far away
Where Your love couldn't reach me.
I could never have so much shame
Where You wouldn't care to seek me.

What more proof of love
Is there than Your son
Offered to such a one as me?
You had him sacrificed
Not sparing his life
So that I had the right
To call You mine.

Now I won't run, run, run away
For Your love has reached me.
I won't hide my face in shame
Your son's blood has cleaned me.
(I'll hold on, on, on - to Your words I'm holding on.)

8. Blood of Another

This world tossed me about, 'till I thought that I would drown.
I needed someone to rescue me.
I didn't know Christ's name but he freely took my shame
And offered his life, to save me.

I was lost without a home
'Till God made me His own.
Now not even sin
Can bar me from Him.
And my great love could never achieve
What the blood of another did for me.

Praise the blood of God's son - all my own work is now done.
And a life lived in liberty now begins.
Freed from fear, freed from doubt, with so much to sing about.
I could never, no never, have done this on my own.

I am fixed, I will stay and there's nothing that can change
What my Savior and Lord did to make me free.
And in triumph I cry to a God who is now mine:
"Oh! What grace and what love have been shown to me!"

9. Tribulation

Tribulation -
You won't shake me one bit
Or cause me to give up and turn and run cuz
Tribulation -
My God says you can strengthen me
As I believe the words that He has given.

Are the things in this life weighing you down?
Have you got pressure, pressure from all around?
And inside, inside are you feeling cast down?
Losing sight of the glory, glory to be found?

Pressures come and go but God stays the same.
The promises He's made will not change.
My hope is sure and nothing can take it away.
So when tribulation comes, I'm gonna say -

10. Stubborn Heart

Oh this stubborn heart of mine,
All toughened up and stuffed with pride -
I'm gonna break it down and I will Take the pieces to my Father.

He resists the proud, He says,
But really I'm the one resisting.
But now I bow my head before Him,
Humbled by my mighty Father.

His strength and power beyond limit
Matched by His grace and wisdom.
Of all the things that He could care for,
He has turned His eyes upon me.

He saw me in my low estate -
Bound by nature, chained by choices.
And He reached out His hands to save me.
In Christ He gives me victory.

So soberly, I stand before you,
Watching as my Father taught me.
I'm not too proud to need His words to Hold them fast and keep them tightly.

All my might and determination
Could not keep my feet from falling.
My sure lifeline is Christ.
He's the answer that God gave me.

11. True to That call

Another morning far from home,
 I didn't have no one to meet.
 So I found a bench and sat alone
 Watching newspapers blow down the street.
 And the poor men walked by with their collars turned up
 And the rich men rolled in their cars
 I was trying to remember where the good times had gone
 And trying to forget all the scars.

I thought that day would surely last
 A million years or more
 But through His word God called to me
 And showed me what living is for.
 I believed in my heart and confessed with my voice
 And now I'm no longer alone.
 He's mine by His love and I'm His by my choice
 The sweet satisfaction of home.

And Lord, may I always be true to that call
 I want to be part of your story.
 And Lord, may I serve you with all of my all
 Till I stand before you in glory.

I dreamed I joined a chosen host
 With a new flag unfurled in the breeze.
 And when I knew that dream was true,
 In amazement, I fell to my knees.
 It's a glorious standard, spread wide 'cross the sky
 In a world that's gone weary and bland.
 And wonder of wonders, You've called such as I
 Beneath that brave banner to stand.

Beneath the banner of His word
 So freely we give what He gave.
 We'll never rest till all have heard
 The truth that freed us from the grave.
 To claim its promises day after day
 To keep it forever in sight
 To hold it high, and let it fly
 When others have fled in the night.

12. What a Savior

Once I was straying in sin's dark valley.
 No hope within, could I see.
 Then came this savior, my blessed savior.
 To save a poor, lost soul like me.

O, what a savior! O hallelujah!
 His heart was broken on Calvary.
 His hands were nail-scarred, his side was riven.
 He gave his life's blood for even me.

He could have ruled here, o'er all earth's kingdoms.
 But he chose God's will in everything.
 Even to suffering, even to dying.
 To make the vilest sinner clean.

I have no fear of death's chilly waters.
 My place in heaven he has made sure.
 So now I serve him, my lord and savior.
 And I shall praise him forevermore.

13. Chin Up

Chin up. Eyes up. Look up above you.
 Remember, you're never alone.
 Put your ways, your thoughts, your fears aside,
 God won't leave you behind.
 Now, I'm not sayin' you won't see hard times here,
 But you don't need to fight on your own.

In happy times, in darkest days,
 Your hope stays the same.
 No friend, no foe can separate
 You from God's tender hand.
 Now, I'm not sayin' you won't see hard times here,
 But you don't need to fight on your own.

The natural man works ceaselessly
 To improve his state.
 No work of yours can ever change
 What God gave you by grace.
 Now, I'm not sayin' you won't see hard times here,
 But you don't need to fight on your own.
